FRIDAY.....JUNE 22, 1877. The Rev. Joseph Cook, the New England champion of orthodoxy, is a man of imposing presence, six feet tall, with broad shoulders, a finely-formed head, and large, expressive blue eyes. After completing his Andover course he went to Germany to study, and came back so brilliantly equipped that the ministerial authorities hardly knew what to do with him. One of them said : There is Cook, a great steam-engine, in splendid order, and all fixed up; but nobody seems to know how to put him to work," He went to Boston a year or two ago, dwelt in cultivated society, gave occasional lectures, wrote articles and poems for the magazines, then distinguished himself by his conduct of a series of meetings under the anspices of the Boston Young Men's Christian Association; holding his ground and biding his time, sure that Boston would some time find him out and discover a use for him. Last year his hope was realized. Mr. Cook is as yet a bachelor, but on Saturday he will be married to Miss Hemingway, of Fair Haven, Conn .- New York Tribune. ..

The divisibility of gold almost surpasses belief. Mr. A. E. Outerbridge, Jr., of the Philadelphia Assay Office, recently exhibited before the Franklin Institute some thin films of gold obtained by electric deposition upon copper and afterward detached. These pieces of gold leaf were transparent, and gave a green color to transmitted light. Mr. Outerbridge has thus produced films of gold so thin that one grain of the metal would cover nearly four square feet. This is ten thousand times thinner than ordinary writing-paper, and 2,798,000 of such films together would only make one inch.

One of the express companies is inflicted with the unwilling possession of a dog with a ravenous appetite. It seems that a Bridgeport man sent the dog by express to a Boston friend, paying $4 for his fare.

The consignee refused to take the animal, and he was sent back. Now the original owner declines to receive him. In the original the price of the owners we will sell at public the regular of the owners we will sell at public. mean time the animal has eaten $4.50 worth of food at the expense of the express company, and they are in a quandary as to what to do with him.

A "Subscriber" asks: "Would vou advise a healthy young man to go to the Black Hills?" If the young man lives in a populous neighborhood and is learning to play the cymbals or accordeon we would advise him to start for the Black Hills at once. Such a trip may be the means of saving his life-and the lives of some of his neighbors. Norristown Herald.

The Grand Duke Nicholas furnishes correspondents with passes on the system employed at Philadelphia, each man's photograph being put on the back of his commission, and a duplicate of it being furnished at headquarters.
